

Join us for a pre-release party and viewing of NYC filmmaker Sonya Friedman's documentary about award-winning writer and community activist Grace Paley.

Grace

A PROFILE OF THE NOTED AMERICAN SHORT-STORY WRITER, POET, EDUCATOR AND POLITICAL ACTIVIST...

GRACE PALEY

A documentary by Herman J. Engel, Linda Leehman, and Sonya Friedman

Produced by Sonya Friedman © 2010

Sunday, March 21 - 3:00-4:30 pm
Midwest City Library
8143 E. Reno - Midwest City

Located on the NE corner of Midwest Boulevard and Reno—Take I-40E to the Douglas exit, north on Douglas to Reno, then west on Reno two miles. OR, go east on NE 63rd, turn south on Midwest Boulevard to Reno—only 20 minutes from OKC. Call 732-4828 for more information.

GRACE PALEY reminisces about her work, life and family, and her early literary and political influences. We see her in interviews from the 1980's to 2004, and in live performances at her fabled readings.

Grace's close friends and colleagues — Jean Valentine, Poet Laureate of New York, Vera Williams, author, illustrator, and others — remember Grace as a writer of genius, a “combative pacifist and cooperative anarchist,” and a loving friend.